Supervision: All students must be under the supervision of a school approved, designated adult. The advisor will be the responsible, on site, decision-maker for the students. Certificated educators who are members of the California Association of Directors of Activities supervise all conference activities. During school meetings all students are to be under the direct supervision of their designated conference adult advisor.

Valuables: Traveling with valuable electronic equipment, CD's and other expensive items can be risky. Please leave valuables home for the weekend. CASL accepts no responsibility for lost or stolen equipment.

Transportation: All student delegates are to be transported by a parent, guardian, adult advisor, other school official, or public carrier (train, bus or plane). Students may not drive themselves to the conference.

Meals: Conference meals include Saturday's dinner/dance; Sunday breakfast, lunch and dinner; and Monday breakfast. All other meals are the responsibility of the delegate.

Dress: The first day, students are encouraged to wear something from their school. Sunday and Monday the dress is casual, appropriate school clothes.

Cancellation and refunds: Cancellations are subject to a $50 per person processing charge, must be in writing, and received no later than February 18, 2005. Cancellations after February 18th will be honored only if another delegate of the same gender fills your place. You must find your own replacement. Replacements must be made no later than March 11, 2005.

Rooming: (new) You, the Advisor, will assign your students to their rooms. Please see Registration Forms and Summary Rooming List Cover Page for instructions.
